From the Vicarage - Wedding Bells

Are you thinking of getting married in Swaledale or Arkengarthdale in 2011 or 2012?
Here are some things to think about now:

You can marry in this parish if you are resident here or if you have a legally defined 'connection' with this parish - please ring, and I can explain the full details to you, or you can find them on the 'life events' page of our parish website.

Please contact me as early as possible, and at least four months before your planned wedding date, to book the date; to arrange the legal paperwork, including the reading of banns of marriage; and to discuss the details of your wedding service.

We enjoy weddings and would want to encourage you to think about getting married in a church service where your vows will be made and your marriage blessed in the name and presence of God.

This website may be useful as you plan your wedding: <http://www.yourchurchwedding.org>

Every blessing as you begin your journey of life together,

Caroline
