A letter from a Curate

Our letter this time is from the Revd Antony Kirby, Curate at St. Mary's, Richmond, who recently spent a month on placement in this parish.

Having spent a month in your Parish of Swaledale with Arkengarthdale, I now find myself back on home territory. In the time I was with you I visited numerous people and found it a great joy to be part of the ministry in those two dales.

I took part and officiated at the Holy Eucharist, baptisms, weddings and a funeral service, and I was privileged to preach at the Swaledale Festival service.

The children at school brought joy to me as they reflected on the meaning of Easter and the Ascension and what those events might signify for them. It was good to hear them discuss elements of the Christian faith that were a part of their life experience and journey, their pilgrimage of life.

As we think of our own life pilgrimage, I wonder what we might change. We must learn from life's journey and use those experiences to grow in wisdom and to further our faith as we place our trust and hope in God, who offers us the opportunity to walk with him by our side.

I thank God for my life journey, some of it difficult, some of it a joy. I give thanks for those who have walked with me, influenced and inspired me, those who have made such a great difference to my outlook on life.

Each one of you has become part of my journey and I thank you for your part, in that we were able to walk the journey together with God holding us. I pray for you and I hope you may pray for me and my family as we search for where God may be calling us to serve him on the next part of our pilgrimage of life.

Every Blessing,

Antony
